ChurchPublishing.org: Days of Grace

Part of my routine for the last three months has been to read a daily meditation from Mary Earle's aptly named book, Days of Grace. The meditations are grounded in how life is rather than how I so often desire it to be. I have been struck by the creative way Mary has painted practices in response to events that could embitter or crush.

21 Days of Mindfulness - Jennifer Grace

To be able to smile genuinely, enraptured by the beauty in each moment and every interaction is also an act of grace. And so, tonight my prayer is that as this journey of Manifesting Grace Through Gratitude enters its third and final week, I will begin to make heartfelt choices that imbue my days with grace. May it be so. Ashé.
