McDonald's: Behind the Arches Summary & Study Guide

The McDonald brother's operations in California was just a local affair and the good will from their business to the Chicago area was zero. Why pay royalties when all he needed was their expertise! After a short while, Ray Kroc had more expertise in the fast food business than the McDonald brothers, but he was locked into their franchise agreement, which cost him $2.7 million in cash to buy out.

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: McDonald's: Behind The Arches

The book focuses on this a lot and given the magnitude of McDonald's reach in our society, I found its origins interesting. McDonald's: Behind the Arches also delves into fun things like the origin of the Big Mac and Filet-O-Fish. It was also interesting to read this book in 2017 from the perspective of 1995, when it was written.
