Worship ought to be robust and in some way reflect the great battle against evil. This is why the world is in complete moral chaos, ever accelerating, but which began centuries ago. But the only true Christian worship - is the Catholic Mass (Tridentine - not the protestant, Novus Ordo abomination of Paul V!th).

What Happens When We Worship?

Worship, on the other hand, carries some significant dangers. Idolizing celebrities often causes us to overlook the very real, tangible mentors right in front of us. Celebrity worship, on the other hand, is often based only on public perceptions (sometimes carefully manipulated) of a person, which in turn results in incorrect assumptions about them.

Celebrity Worship - Becoming Minimalist

Not only are we to worship from our hearts but to worship in accordance with God's Word. Jon D. Payne writes, "Authentic Christian worship, when carried out according to what God (the ultimate governing authority) has instituted in His Word, is the context in which God is honored and His people flourish." (In the Splendor of Holiness, p.
